A word from Fr. Bill...

Dear Parishioners:

Happy Father's Day to all of our fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, adopted fathers. Godfathers, father-in-laws and father figures in our lives. We are grateful for who you are and all you do to reflect God's care and concern for us.

As you know from my letter a few weeks ago, our Capital Campaign has raised over $800,000 (approximately $500,000 from parishioners and friends of the parish, $250,000 from the Augustinians and $43,000 from grants). We have two other definite grant commitments ($45,000). As you can see listed in my last letter as well as outlined on the Capital Campaign page on our parish website, all of this money has been put to very good use.

We have two pending grants (each for a $100,000) to help restore the tower (brick and stone pointing, brick replacement, cleaning, wood repair, coating and most expensive of all, scaffolding). The total cost for the restoration of the tower is just over $300,000. We sincerely hope that we will be awarded these two grants.

It was suggested by members of our Steering Committee that we may have parishioners who work for corporations or agencies who make charitable donations. If you work for such an organization (or own one) please let me know. Thanks.

We are now about to transition into a new phase. We are initiating the St. Augustine Heritage Foundation. A great deal has been accomplished thus far for this to become a reality (by-laws, approval of the Archdiocese, and approval of a 501(c)(3) status). We are awaiting the approval of the IRS and seeking interested, willing and qualified board members as well as a freelance grant writer.

We have come a long way. As I said, we are now in the transition to the next stage.

As you will recall, we announced for several weeks the need for more Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist at the Sunday 9:00 AM and 7:00 PM Masses. I am happy to inform you that 12 parishioners responded to this request. One had to withdraw because of a personal conflict. I met with the remaining eleven on Wednesday, June 7. We had a wonderful discussion on the theology of the Eucharist, the call for all people with different gifts and different roles to share in the celebration of the Eucharist, and some of the "do's and don'ts" in exercising this important ministry to the community. I am happy to say that I did not know beforehand 6 of the 11 parishioners. I find this a positive sign of new life within the community. Thank you, Maureen, Brian, Bill, Ted, Kharisma, Cassandra, Jaclyn, Mary, Katie, Kristin, and Rachel. Within the training session, the topic surfaced of returning to the practice of making the Precious Blood available at our Sunday Masses. The Archdiocese approved this as of the 1st Sunday of Advent this past year. We have been doing this at the weekday Masses. The group last Wednesday responded in a positive way to this suggestion. I told them I would consult with the Parish Pastoral Council for their advice. Stay tuned.

Have a great week.

Fr. Bill
