A word from Fr. Bill...

Dear Parishioners:

You may remember that in my letter a few weeks ago I shared with you observations which were made by “The Mystery Worshipper.” You can find them on our parish website on the “What do people say about us” page.

Well, it happened again. We recently received a note from a couple from Harrisburg who was here for a family wedding. They were very observant about the many beautiful things in the church, and in particular the sanctuary. They sent us the following note:

Dear Saint Augustine Staff:

We hope you're all well. A few weeks ago we were blessed to be in your church for the wedding of our niece and her husband. We were so impressed with all the imagery in your church and then even more impressed when we went home and read about its history.

We actually have a Catholic radio show back here in Harrisburg so we built this week's show on your church. Here's a link to the show if you want to check it out:

<https://holyfamilyradio.podbean.com/e/family-show-169-god-seeth-and-everything-sure-looks-different/>

Thanks for all you do to maintain such a beautiful and vibrant parish. Our prayers are with you all; please keep us in yours. We look forward in crossing paths there again. Savor the day and Season!

Peace,

Randy

You can find the link to their podcast show on our website on the page “What do people say about us?” They have an interesting reflection concerning the statues of St. Augustine, St. Monica and the words “The Lord Seeth” in the sanctuary. You might be interested in knowing that they also sent a note to the offices of the Archdiocese.

Have a great week.

Fr. Bill
