Spring Clean Up and Flower Planting

The Friends of Old City will be holding their Annual Spring Cleanup and Flower Planting on Saturday, March 27, 2021 from 10 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. This year we will meet in the parking lot at Saint Augustine Church. The plantings (and mulching) will be for the planters along the 4th and Vine Streets blocks. The cleanup will entail areas north of the Ben Franklin Bridge. All supplies and tools will be provided. This is a valuable community event that helps enhance our neighborhood significantly. If you are interested in helping, please call the Parish Office at 215-627-1838 to let us know.

Laetare Sunday is the fourth Sunday in the season of Lent, in the Western Christian liturgical calendar. Traditionally, this Sunday has been a day of celebration, within the austere period of Lent. This Sunday gets its name from the first few words (incipit) of the traditional Latin entrance (Introit) for the Mass of the day. "Laetare Jerusalem" ("Rejoice, O Jerusalem") is Latin from the Book of Isaiah. The term "Laetare Sunday" is used by most Roman Catholic Churches. The word comes from the Latin laetare, the singular imperative of laetari: "to rejoice."

"Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast."

In Roman Catholic churches, flowers may appear on the altar and the organ may be played as a solo instrument. Priests are given the option to wear rose-colored vestments at Mass held on this day in place of the violet vestments normally worn during Lent. The term "rose" is used to describe this lighter shade of the color violet in the Roman Rite. Sunday is considered a day of relaxation from normal Lenten rigors; a day of hope with Easter at last within sight.

A word from Fr. Bill.....

Dear Parishioners:

It certainly is understandable that we can become frustrated during these coronavirus days. There can be a great deal of negative and discouraging feelings and for many good reasons: a great deal of difficulty getting the vaccine shot, cannot get to the office, cannot get to school, cannot travel, have to wear a mask, have not seen my family, had to postpone my wedding, etc. We can all fill in other blanks.

In that light, I think it is helpful to hear some good and positive things. These are some unsolicited comments we have received in the past several weeks here in the parish.

“I hear your bells from my apartment every day and, as someone who grew up in Catholic schools, it is a great reminder of the connection we have to the community around us and the spirit that we all share.”

“This summer I moved to Old City about a block from St. Augustine. For a while I have tried to keep God at the center of my life via prayer, going to church with friends, reading the Bible, etc. But I still feel as something is missing in this deeper connection I am looking for, which lead me to your website. I would love to join this parish however; I was not baptized at birth. Does this change how I would apply to join your church? I am also looking to get baptized.”

“We attended Ash Wednesday Mass at 7 PM and absolutely loved it. Everyone was so warm and welcoming and we couldn’t imagine joining another parish.”

“My boyfriend, & I celebrated Ash Wednesday at your parish yesterday and he expressed interest in starting the process of converting to Catholicism (he is Lutheran). I am born and raised Catholic however, I am not a registered parishioner at St. Augustine. Can you share more details with me about the process for? Thank you!”

On an administrative level, you, our parishioners, have been extremely faithful and generous in continuing to support us during this pandemic. The offertory collection thus far this fiscal year is very comparable to last year. We are very grateful to all those using the electronic giving. Our income from rent is a little higher than this time last year. Our biggest financial challenge had been in weddings getting postponed or in a few cases cancelled. Our income for weddings this fiscal year is about $50,000 less than the same period last year. As challenging as this is, most of these weddings will take place in the future. Thank goodness we had some money in reserve (nothing from the Capital Campaign) to help us. We are current with our bills. At the same time, because of the Capital Campaign, we have been able to continue improvements in the parish property. The most recent, obvious and visible have been the new carpeting in the church and the refurbished pews. We are encouraged as we are now working with The Catholic Foundation of Greater Philadelphia in the area of ascertaining grants for various projects in the future.

During Lent (thanks to Zoom) we have been able to enhance our spirituality with discussions on the Sacraments (Tuesdays), discussions on the scripture readings for the upcoming Sundays (Thursdays), and reflect on the Stations of the Cross (Fridays). In the midst of this, we celebrated the Rite of Election and the Scrutinies with Steve Rainstein and John Wilson who are preparing to join the Catholic Church.

I mention all this because in the midst of the negative effects on our lives due to the pandemic, there are bright spots here in the parish, thanks to the generosity of so many, not only financially but also in sharing time and talents. I am particularly grateful to our parish staff, those involved in the music ministry of the parish, those on the committee who organized the sessions on the sacraments, and those on the Parish Pastoral Council, Parish Finance Commission, and Steering Committee of the Capital Campaign who have collaborated with me during these challenging days.

Thank you, God and thank you all of you who have shared your time, talents and treasures for the good of our parish community.

Have a SAFE week.

Fr. Bill
